

IN PRISON, BUT FREE IN GOD

December 13, 2009

For a little more than 10 years, Susie and I have been in place for God to use us to bring the Kingdom of God into prisons in North Carolina. It is a delight and a pleasure to know that Father God would trust us with such an assignment. When there is the spirit of the Lord is...there is freedom!

Yesterday, approximately 175 women at the North Carolina Correctional Institute for Women were lined up for worship service in the rain. They were waiting for the doors to open, and the weather was definitely not on their mind. Even in the rain that was coming down, all these women were feeling was anticipation for God to move in their hearts on this cold and dreary December morning.

Spirits were high as several of the ladies volunteered to sing solos, and praise songs to the Lord. A message was brought forth about love and forgiveness, and many of the ladies repented and commitments were made to follow the Lord Jesus.

Women were set free from bondage, even tho' they remain incarcerated. What a privilege to serve the Father as we give of our time to go to the Prison each month. Susie and I are happy and joyful as we continue to serve the Lord in this place of great need. Keep us in your prayers for more manifestations of the Holy Spirit to fall...and the grace and favor to abide in their hearts.

Psalm 124:7-8 My Soul escaped, like a bird, out of the snare of the fowler,

In His Love,

Brenda Elmore